

Base Grants Privacy Notice

This privacy notice (“Notice”) sets out what personal information we at Base (referred to throughout this Notice as “we”, “us” or “our”) collect when you apply for our On-chain Summer Grants Program (“Base Grants”).

Base Grants are intended to reward community-members for their projects and proposals. When you apply for a Base Grant, we need to collect, use and share certain information about you (“Personal Information”) in order to process your application. This Notice explains how we use your Personal Information and your privacy rights in relation to your Personal Information.

Categories of Personal Information Processed

When you make an application, and in accordance with the Onchain Summer Grants Program Official Rules, we collect the following Personal Information from you:

Information category	Description
Basic applicant information	Name, address, date of birth, nationality, country of residence, phone number, email address, signature
Financial information	Preferred payment method, wallet address, tax identification number, tax identification type
Business information (if applicable)	Business name, business type, business classification, information on provision of goods or services to Base or Base affiliates, diversity classification

We also obtain information about you from public databases, such as the United Nations Sanctions List or listing on any sanctions list maintained by public authorities, media reports, and other data as necessary.

Purposes of Processing Your Personal Information

We use the foregoing information to review your application, ensure that you meet certain eligibility criteria, and to provide Base Grants to successful applicants. We rely on legitimate interests under Article 6(1)(f) GDPR as the legal basis for this processing.

Sharing Your Personal Information with Third Parties

We may also need to disclose your Personal Information to certain third parties, such as our service providers, partners and affiliate companies that assist with Base Grants. When we share information with third-party service providers in this capacity, we require them to use your information on our behalf in accordance with our instructions and terms and only process as necessary for the purpose of the contract. We work with the following different types of third-party service providers:

- Hosting platform that facilitates Base Grants application form.
- Electronic signature service provider to facilitate remote signing of Base forms.
- Payment providers, including for the purposes of creating invoices and to initiate payment to grant recipients.
- Safety and security service provider to conduct background checks to ensure the integrity of applicants.

This may mean that your Personal Information is transferred outside of the European Economic Area (“EEA”). Where we do so, we rely on the European Standard Contractual Clauses. You can request a copy of these by emailing privacy@base.org.

Your Privacy Rights

Subject to certain exceptions and applicable laws, you may request access to, or that we correct, restrict use, port, anonymize or delete your Personal Information, or you may object to the processing of Personal Information. If you wish to exercise your rights or if you have questions or concerns regarding this Notice, please contact us at privacy@base.org. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with your national supervisory authority, or if you are based in the UK to the ICO.

Coinbase Technologies, Inc., 251 Little Falls Drive, City of Wilmington, County of New Castle, Delaware 19808, acts as controller of your personal data for the purposes of the Base Grants program.
